
Writing Answers to Questions

PRACTICE: The following questions ask how many, where, when or what rather than who. These can be answered in much the same way as who questions. Study the first two examples in order to complete questions 3, 4, 5, and 6. Write out most of the answer leaving only a small blank for the answer. You are not to answer the questions.

- 1. When does Jamie plan to visit his grandmother again? Take most of the information that is included in the question and write a sentence, leaving out the answer.
